Customer Request for Release of Valuation Liability

This is to confirm that _____ has read and understands the terms of the Kelly Freight Services, Inc. Waybill and the Service Terms and Conditions of Contract published and displayed on our website at www.kellyfreightservices.com.

The customer referenced above requests Kelly Freight Services, Inc. to provide excess valuation coverage on all shipments when the customer's housebill indicates excess value is required. An additional excess value charge of $0.50 per $100.00 of declared value will be assessed by Kelly Freight Services, Inc. on all customer housebills so stating excess value.

Excess Value Requested (Yes) _____ No Additional Excess Value Requested (No) _____

In the event of a valid claim, and no excess value has been requested, we specifically agree to hold Kelly Freight Services, Inc. liable for only $0.50 per pound on the affected weight of the shipment.

We understand that with respect to C.O.D. shipments the $0.50 per pound limitation will apply to these shipments as well and that any C.O.D. fee that may be charged covers only the additional service provided by Kelly Freight Services, Inc. for collecting and remitting the C.O.D. funds and that this C.O.D. fee does not increase the liability of Kelly Freight Services, Inc beyond the $0.50 per pound liability limitation on the affected weight of the shipment.

We also understand that all freight charges must be current before Kelly Freight Services, Inc. will entertain payment of any claim.

If no other agreement is made prior to any shipment movement it is understood that the release value for carriage as set forth above shall apply on all shipments in the future.
